GRADUATION CEREMONIES -- INTERNATIONAL YMCA LANGUAGE COURSES

Graduation ceremonies for successful students of the International YMCA's fourth and final session of English and French language courses in 1964 will take place --

Thursday, November 26th, 8:15 p.m., YMCA Gymnasium, 5500 Park Ave.,
Guest speaker is Mrs. Trudy Faure.

Monday, November 30th, 8:15 p.m., YMCA Gymnasium, 5500 Park Ave.,
Guest speaker is Mr. Malcolm Davies, Bell Telephone Co. Ltd.,

Of the more than 300 persons who began the present session of classes on September 21st about 200 will receive certificates for passing the examinations at the respective levels. The "Y" offers 17 different classes: 11 basic English classes at 5 levels; one English business correspondence course and 5 French classes at 2 levels.

In addition to the regular language classes the International YMCA this year is presenting specifically designed courses in Industrial Language in both French and English. These courses are taught at the plant and are related directly to the particular industries involved.

This year more than 1,200 persons of many racial origins have attended the language programs of the International YMCA.

Please contact Mr. Ward Minielly, Adult Program Secretary at 271-4639 for further information.
